

Person centre approaches

A person centred approach is about developing a plan of care that fits with what that individual is ready, able and willing to do. It means the individual is an equal partner in the planning of their care and support needs

Promotes
positive
well-being

Honours an individual's choice

Enhances
dignity

Empowers
the individual

Improves
quality of life

Supports
independence